Do you have a new job or are you in a new relationship and are you opting for temporary additional partner pension within three months? Then you don't have to provide additional medical information.

Additional medical questions

Do you have a new job or are you in a new relationship and are you opting for temporary additional partner pension after three months? Then we will ask you for additional medical information. This also applies if you die within six months after the start of the insurance. Were you already insured for temporary additional partner pension with PME or Pensioenfonds Metaal en Techniek (PMT)? Then different conditions apply. Your employer knows what these additional conditions are.

6 Signature

You give permission to your employer to deduct the contribution for the insurance from your gross salary each month.
